

NEXT TIME, USE ANCRA.

A spilled load is more than just delayed and damaged goods. It's also traffic citations, insurance company headaches, lost time, lost money, lost credibility.

Next time, secure your load right—the first time—with quality Ancra cargo restraint systems.

For a free brochure on Ancra flatbed products, or the name of the Ancra distributor nearest you, call or write Ancra.

Because it's cheaper than a spilled load. By a long shot.
